

PROCEDURES: This event is open to everyone. Volkssports are noncompetitive events. Each participant, whether free or paid, must register and sign an Amateur Athletic Waiver and Release of Liability (Parent or Guardian must sign for a minor) at the start point. A control (start) card will be issued upon registration that must be carried during the walk, validated at control points along the route, and turned in at the finish upon completion of the walk.

PLACER PACERS: If you enjoy walking for exercise or for pleasure, being outdoors, sightseeing, history, seeing new places and meeting nice people, you will love volkssports and the Placer Pacers. The Placer Pacers Volkssport club of Auburn, is one of the largest, and most active such organizations in Northern California. The Club takes special pride in providing quality volkssports throughout the area. Historic and scenic sites and trails provide the backdrop for these noncompetitive sporting events. The Placer Pacers meet at 7:00PM the 2nd Tuesday of each month at Round Table Pizza, Elm Shopping Center in Auburn. Those interested in membership or wishing to learn more about volkssports are welcome.
